

Maths

This week the children have been learning about shapes. We have been going over the four basic shapes, circle, square, rectangle and triangle.

Ask your child to look at the following shapes, are they able to tell you what they are? Then ask your child to look around the house for objects that are the same shapes that we have been learning, can they draw these objects in their homework books and using their phonics sounds try and label them.

