

Yrs 3&4 English Homework – Due Week 7

Nonsense Poetry.

Over this past week we've learnt about Shape poems, Kenning poems, and Limerick poems, however do you remember last week's Flip video about nonsense poems?

Below is another nonsense poem that I'd like you to watch as part of your homework, then write your own nonsense poem! Pay attention to the poet's facial expressions and hand gestures as he reads his poem, listen to his tone, the pace he reads at and his pronunciation.

Some pupils (maybe you), will be performing your poems in the class next week. Your poem must have at least two rhyming verses (lines).

Make sure you can read your own handwriting, practise your poem at home by performing it for your loved ones, so that if you are selected you can deliver your poem clearly, loudly and with expression. Please keep your poem between 6 – 12 verses (lines).

Poem for Inspiration:

I Was Born in the Stone Age | POEM | Michael Rosen